

21 JAN 2017

WOMEN'S

BOSTON MARCH FOR AMERICA

20,000 +
REGISTERED TO MARCH
AS OF JANUARY 10!
AND 183 MARCHES WORLDWIDE!

Join us!

Boston Women's March for America! Saturday, Jan. 21, 2017 11am – 3pm

Let us know that you will stand with us as we march:

Alliance for a Secular and Democratic South Asia

info@southasiaalliance.org

<http://www.southasiaalliance.org/>

DATE: Saturday, Jan. 21, 2017

TIME: 11am–3pm

PROGRAM: 11am–12noon
on Boston Common with 8-10 speakers/performers

PEOPLE'S OATH: 12noon

MARCH: 12:30–2:00pm

GATHER: 2:00–3:00pm
on Boston Common for community building

About the March: We will unite in Boston to march in solidarity with over 200 simultaneous women's marches across the country and the world. Inspired by the Women's March on Washington, the Boston Women's March for America (BWMFA) stands with our sister events, partners and children for the protection of our rights, safety, liberty and families.

We are rooted in a belief that women's rights are human rights and that vibrant and diverse communities are the strength of our country. The march is a first step in uniting our communities and to empower grassroots change. We will work peacefully to send a bold message to our elected leaders.

The Boston Women's March for America is intended to be peaceful and nonpartisan and welcomes participants without regard to gender, age, race, religion, sexual orientation or ability.

The Massachusetts Organizers for the Boston Women's March for America are volunteers and are not being compensated in any manner for their time and dedication to this event. The March is a grassroots movement that is fluid and has many moving parts. Information is shared and disseminated as quickly as possible by the Massachusetts Organizers. Nothing in the information provided is intended to create a contractual relationship and organizers are merely acting as facilitators to aid in the success of the event.

Any community partnership or person participating in the Boston Women's March for America does so at their own risk and at their own expense. No warranty of any kind, express or implied are made by the Massachusetts Organizers nor are Organizers liable for any monetary loss, personal injury, cancellation of event or misinformation. Participants release the Massachusetts Organizers from any and all legal liability and acknowledge that participation is at their own risk.

